Hearing.

It is said that so acute is the sheep's sense of hearing that she can distinguish the cry of her own lamb among as many as a thousand others all bleating at the same time; and the lamb, too, is able to recognize its mother's voice even though it be in midst of a large flock. James Hogg, who ing, instead of the partial rollwas a shepherd as well as a poet, ing action of the arms now tells us that it was very amusing praticed, the body is laid upon to watch the sheep and lambs during the shearing season. While the sheep were shorn the lambs ped down to the waist. The pit would be put into a fold by themrelves, and the former would be sent to join their little ones as clothing or the body of another ettexille. Dry Goods are soon as the operation of shearing man will do for this.
